

Headline that relates emotionally to their reason for being here

Unhappy with your inheritance?

If you have not received the inheritance you expected, a legal challenge may be possible to change or dispute the current arrangements, with or without a signed will.

This free online tool makes an assessment of your circumstances and provides an immediate answer on whether you have the legal grounds to contest a will or dispute your inheritance.

Check a Claim

Value proposition that immediately answers the question of whether it is possible to challenge inheritance.

Brought to you by IDR Law, the UK's only inheritance dispute specialist law firm.

IDR LAW

Top ranking keyword

Contesting a will

Disputes over inheritance often occur between family members following the death of a loved one. These disagreements can make an already difficult situation even harder to deal with, and leave you searching for a resolution.

The first step to resolving these sensitive situations is establishing whether you have the legal right to challenge the current arrangements, and reach an agreement with your family.

This free tool gives you an immediate answer based on your unique situation, with detailed guidance on the legal issues relevant to you. Just answer the questions and get a personalised report with everything you need to know.

Check a Claim

Siblings arguing to support the copy in helping them recognise their situation.

This tool can help with these situations...

- ✓ You were left out of the will or received less than expected.
- ✓ There is no will
- ✓ The will was improperly written or signed
- ✓ You were relying on inheritance for financial support
- ✓ You are unhappy with the handling of the estate
- ✓ You were promised inheritance that hasn't materialised
- ✓ The will doesn't reflect the deceased persons wishes
- ✓ A claim has been made against you which you need to defend

Check a Claim

Bullet points that explain all the typical types of inheritance dispute in simple terms for easy recognition.

Quick guide to inheritance disputes

- Can I dispute inheritance? ⊕
- The will was improperly written or signed ⊕
- I was relying on the inheritance for financial support ⊕
- I am unhappy with the handling of the estate ⊕
- There is no will ⊕
- Steps of an inheritance dispute ⊕
- Time limits ⊕
- Costs & funding ⊕
- Someone has made a claim against me ⊕

Accordions that explain all the issues identified in the research, that people involved in inheritance disputes want to understand.

