The screenshot shows a website header with the logo 'IDRN' and navigation links: 'Refer a client', 'Knowledge base', 'Meet the team', 'Latest news', '1975 Claim Checker', and 'Charities'. The user is logged in as 'Hi, Eddy' with a 'Logout' button.

The left sidebar contains a search bar and a list of categories: '1975 Act', 'Estate Administration', 'Beneficiaries' (highlighted in teal), 'Executors', 'Trusts', and 'Charity Legacy'. Under 'Beneficiaries', there are sub-categories: 'General info', 'Disputes' (expanded), and 'Settling disputes'. Under 'Disputes', there are 'Will Challenges' (expanded) and 'Lack of knowledge and approval' (highlighted in dark teal). Under 'Will Challenges', there are 'Formality' and 'Capacity'. Under 'Lack of knowledge and approval', there are 'Fraudulent Calumny', 'Rectification / Constructions Issues', and 'Undue Influence'. Other sub-categories include 'Proprietary Estoppel', 'Death Bed Gifts', 'Estate Administration Disputes', 'Trust Disputes', and '1975 Act Claims'.

The main content area shows a breadcrumb trail: 'Knowledge base > Beneficiaries > Disputes > Will challenges > Lack of knowledge and approval'. The title is 'Lack of knowledge and approval'. Below the title is a white box containing the text: 'How will this page work? is this a bottom level page with all info on this subject on this page?' and 'FAQs at the top? downloadable pdf factsheets?'. At the bottom right of the main content area is a teal circular button with a phone icon and the text 'Fast-track a client'.
